Provided that the maximum age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

- 5. Disqualification.—(1) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and
- (2) No woman, whose marriage is void by reasons of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage, or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Powers to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the U.P.S.C., relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect of any class or category of persons or posts.

[No. 5-19/67-L.D.III.]

- G.S.R. 1753.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class III and Class IV posts in the Herd Registration Schene under the Ministry of Food and Agriculture (Department of Agriculture), namely:—
- 1. Short little and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Herd Registration Scheme, (Class III and Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1968.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the official Gazette.
- 2. Application.—These rules shall apply for recruitment to the posts in column 2 of the Schedule annexed hereto.
- 3. Number and classification and scale of pay.—The number of the said posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 3 to 5 of the said Schedule.
- 4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating thereto shall be as specified in columns 6 to 14 of the said Schedule.

Provided that the maximum age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

- 5. Disqualification.—(i) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts; and
- (ii) No woman, whose marriage is void by reasons of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage, or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said pos's:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Powers to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing and in consultation with the U.P.S.C., relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect of any class or category of persons or posts.

[No. 8-6/67-L.D.III.]

- G.S.R. 1754.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 of the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment to Class III & Class IV posts in the Regional Stations for conducting demonstration of forage production under the Ministry of Food and Agriculture (Department of Agriculture) namely:—
- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Regional Stations for conducting demonstration of forage production (Class III and Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1963.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- 2. Application.—These rules shall apply for recruitment to the posts specified in column 2 of the Schedule annexed hereto.
- 3. Number, classification and scale of pay.—The number of the said posts, their classification and the scale of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 3 to 5 of the said schedule.
- 4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating thereto shall be as specified in columns 6 to 14 of the said schedule:

Provided that the maximum age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of candidate belonging to the Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

- 5. Disqualification.—(i) No person, who has more than one wife living or who having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life-time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts, and
- (ii) No woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage, or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Powers to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons or posts.

[No. 502-2/66-Admn.].

- G.S.R. 1761.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to article 309 the Constitution, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment, namely:—
- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Posts and Telegraphs Directorate (Class IV posts) Recruitment Rules, 1968.
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- 2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts specified in column 2 of the Schedule to these Rules.
- 3. Number of posts, classification and scales of pay.—The number of posts, their classification and scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 3 to 5 of the said Schedule.
- 4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications etc.—The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other methods connected therewith shall be as specified in columns 6 to 14 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit prescribed for direct recruitment specified in column 7 may be relaxed in the case of candidates belonging to Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes or other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued by the Central Government from time to time.

- 5. Disqualifications.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts, and
- (b) no woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to any of the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6. Powers to relax.—Where the Central Government is of the opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons be recorded in writing, relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect to any class or category of persons.

(P. & T. Board)

New Delhi, the 12th September 1968

- G.S.R. 1763.—In exercise of the powers conferred by the proviso to Article 309 of the Constitution and in supersession of the Indian Posts and Telegraphs (Steno graphers) Recruitment Rules, 1961, the President hereby makes the following rules regulating the method of recruitment of persons to the posts of Stenographers in the Indian Posts and Telegraphs Department, namely:—
- 1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These rules may be called the Indian Posts and Telegraphs (Stenographers) Recruitment Rules. 1968
- (2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.
- 2. Application.—These rules shall apply to the posts of Stenographers and Selection Grade Stenographers as specified in column 1 of the Schedule thereto annexed.
- 3 Classification and Scales of Pay.—The classification and the scales of pay attached thereto shall be as specified in columns 2 and 3 of the said Schedule.
- 4. Method of recruitment, age limit and other qualifications.—The method of recruitment to the said posts, age limit, qualifications and other matters relating to them shall be as specified in columns 4 to 11 of the Schedule aforesaid:

Provided that the upper age limit prescribed for direct recruitment may be relaxed in the case of Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and other special categories of persons in accordance with the orders issued from time to time by the Central Government

- 5. Disqualifications.—(a) No person, who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse shall be eligible for appointment to the said posts; and
- (b) No woman, whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or, who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for appointment to the said posts:

Provided that the Central Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so ordering, exempt any person from the operation of this rule.

6 Power to relax.—Where the Central Government is of opinion that it is necessary or expedient so to do, it may, by order, for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any of the provisions of these rules with respect of any class or category of persons or posts.
